

Privacy Policy

Introduction

1. Indigo U3A recognises the importance of protecting members' privacy in relation to their personal information.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this policy is to set out members' privacy rights and to document the framework that Indigo U3A will apply when collecting, storing and using members' personal information.

Policy

3. This policy applies to any information collected by Indigo U3A that can be used to identify an individual member. We may collect and record the following types of personal information about members:
 - name
 - postal, street and/or email addresses
 - telephone contact number/s
 - previous profession or occupation
 - skills or interests
 - emergency contact details
 - image (photo or video)
 - other information you provide to us through member surveys or for other purposes.
4. Indigo U3A will collect personal information about each member directly from the member in question. This will be done through membership and course registration processes. Indigo U3A may use photographs and/or videos of members for advertising and/or publicity purposes. If members do not want their images to be used by Indigo U3A please make this known at the time the photo or video is taken. From time to time, other information may be collected via a survey or by other methods.
5. Indigo U3A collects personal information from members so that we can provide services and perform functions that are consistent with our constitution, including:
 - to make classes and other activities available to members
 - for communication, administrative, marketing, and planning purposes
 - for program development, quality control and research purposes
 - to maintain accurate and up-to-date membership records.
6. Indigo U3A will:
 - only collect information that is consistent with our primary purpose and constitution
 - inform members of the reason why information is collected and how it is administered
 - inform members that any personal information held about them is accessible to them
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held is accurate and up to date
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held is protected from misuse, loss and unauthorised access.

7. Members' personal information will not be shared or disclosed other than as described in this policy. Personal information will not be made available to others for direct marketing purposes.
8. Indigo U3A may disclose your personal information, for purposes that are directly relevant to our constitution, to:
 - volunteers, for example, tutors and members of the Committee of Management
 - related organisations, for example, U3A Network Victoria Inc
 - employees, contractors or service providers where it is essential to the service to be provided.
9. As our website is linked to the internet, and the internet is inherently insecure, we cannot provide any assurance regarding the security of transmission of information you communicate to us online and these communications will be at members' own risk.
10. If Zoom meetings are recorded, participants will be informed prior to the start of the recording and if they wish can turn off their video and mute their microphone for the duration of the recording, or they may elect to leave the meeting.

Procedures

11. Members may request access to any personal information Indigo U3A holds about them by contacting Indigo U3A's Secretary who will aim to provide a suitable means of accessing the information.
12. Where a member believes that personal information held about him/her is incomplete or inaccurate the member may ask the Secretary to amend it.
13. Where a member believes their privacy has been breached, they should contact Indigo U3A's Secretary and provide details of the incident so that it can be investigated.
14. Any questions or concerns about this policy, or a complaint regarding the treatment of personal information, should be referred to Indigo U3A's Secretary.
15. Indigo U3A will treat confidentially all requests or complaints lodged regarding this policy. We will contact you within a reasonable time after receipt of your complaint to discuss your concerns and to outline options regarding how they may be resolved. We will aim to ensure that your complaint is resolved in a timely, impartial and appropriate manner.

Responsibilities

16. Indigo U3A's Committee of Management is responsible for:
 - developing, adopting, implementing and publishing this policy
 - collecting, storing and using members personal information in accordance with this policy
 - investigating complaints about the handling of personal information
 - approving access to personal information consistent with this policy
 - monitoring and revising this policy as and when the need arises.
17. Indigo U3A's Secretary is responsible for: receiving enquiries about this policy and complaints about a potential breach of this policy; and, for bringing a complaint before the Committee of Management for investigation and resolution.

18. Indigo U3A's Secretary is responsible for responding to a member's request for access to the personal information held by Indigo U3A about that member and for requests to correct personal information that is believed to be inaccurate or out of date.

Authorisation

19. This Privacy Policy was approved by the Committee of Management of Indigo U3A on 8 September 2022.
